New Year - NEW MEDIA!

The Debaters

Highlights the concept behind debating, its role in society and how it develops a global discourse for students to discuss important issues.

Rude: Where Are Our Manners?

Explores ideas of modern civility, or lack thereof. People's perception of our world is that we've become increasingly uncivil.

Jane Eyre

Jane Eyre is an orphan, sent to Lowood school, and eventually becomes a governess at Thornfield Hall to a girl named Adele.

... And Your Name Is Jonah

A classic film about deafness shown (without captions) on CBS television in 1979.

Interactions: Water Resources

The chief of urban water conservation for the state of California explains the challenges of supplying water to a growing population of millions.

Fannie Lou Hamer

Fannie Lou Hamer is remembered for winning the right to vote for Black Americans and exposing America's poverty by giving a voice to those in need.

Visualizing Human Physiology

Human beings, like every living organism, are driven by two inherent needs: to survive, and ultimately, to reproduce.

Jenny's Reasons

Provides a look at teen depression and the often unwitting family dynamics that surround it.

Adventures of Huckleberry Finn

Based on Mark Twain's classic novel of a boy growing up along the Mississippi River.

Houdini!

Harry Houdini is widely regarded as the greatest escapologist of all time. Features rare photographs and vintage footage from many of his escape performances.
