Self-Advocacy, Self-Determination, and Self-Respect

Self-advocacy is important for all ages and all stages of life. Students need to learn responsibility, whether it be choosing an appropriate outfit for school or choosing a career for life. DCMP has videos to support all stages of the process. Students can learn self-respect, increased self-esteem, and self-advocacy skills. There are also videos for adults to improve their skills in fostering self-advocacy.
