

Educational Videos That Are Accessible and Standards-aligned

DCMP provides equal access to educational videos in classrooms and homes with students who are deaf, hard of hearing, blind, visually impaired, and deaf-blind. Additionally, our videos meet required educational standards. DCMP members can browse and search for videos based on state and national educational standards, including:

- Common Core
- Standards for Each State
- Next Generation Science Standards
- National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies
- K-12 ASL Content Standards

State standards information appears in each video's Media Details, and will default to the state in which your DCMP account is registered. All DCMP services are free.
